VAN HORN IS STILL AFTER NEW COUNTY

Committee Named to Take a Straw Vote on Question of Segregation.

Van Horn, Tex., March 29.—The citizens met to discuss the advisability of having this part of the county segregated from the county of El Paso.

Among those present were Rev. L. R. Millican, Ned Bounds, R. Durrill, J. H. Beach, J. E. Bean, J. E. Cox, Fred Gibson, James A. Esby, T. C. Wafford, W. A. Hague, Ben Wylie, Mr. Merchen.

W. D. Garren was acting chairman, and several interesting short talks were made and a committee was appointed to devise means and ways of informing every taxpaying citizen in this end of the county of the movement on foot, and to find out their sentiment in regard to the county division.

The committee of seven appointed is composed of T. C. Wafford, chairman; J. E. Bean, Fred Gibson, James A. Esby, Ben Wylie, R. Durrill and Henry Cox.

James A. Esby was elected secretary of the new county movement, and if the majority are in favor of the new county the people will make another effort to have the next legislature create a new county.

The Van Horn Bible class gave a social at the residence of Mrs. L. J. Hall.

Mrs. Dowling's music class, rendered violin and piano selections. There was also a recitation by Miss Willie Garren.

John E. Cox has been planting many trees around the waterworks plant.

Many of the citizens have been planting fruit trees about their premises this year, and making their homes look like new orchards.

Messrs. Stevens, Wafford, Taylor and Henry Cox received a large shipment of trees.

Van Horn Progressive league members attended the box ball party given in honor of Wallace Duncan who is home on a short visit.

B. C. Breeding has put out quite a number of shade trees on his lots on the north side of town.

John Morine has returned from the Coffett ranch, where he went after a bunch of cattle.

Miss Neva Yarbro is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. T. Medley.

Mrs. Ward, of Longfellow, has come to keep house for her son, who is working at the carpenter's trade here.

Earl Yarbro was called to El Paso by the sickness of his sister, Mrs. Media Williams.

The Methodist women will give a chicken pie supper at the restaurant April 2, for the benefit of the church.

MARATHON MAN SHOT TO DEATH

E. O. Lochausen Surrenders Following Killing of Edgar Reed

Marathon, Texas, March 29.—Edgar Reed was shot and killed in a store here last evening. E. O. Lochausen is under arrest at Alpine, where he went after the shooting.

The killing occurred in the store of J. J. Hess & Bros., and Reed, who was killed with a shotgun, had his head almost torn from his body. It is said that Reed's father and brother have been killed within the past two years.

Alpine, Texas, March 29.—Edgar Reed was shot and killed at Marathon last evening. E. O. Lochausen, a prominent and well known stockman, came to Alpine and surrendered to the authorities.

HAY DESTROYED AT SIERRA BLANCA

Mule Drawing Load Burned. Another Load Set Afire.

Sierra Blanca, Texas, March 29.—Excitement was created here when a wagonload of hay, belonging to Bob Duncan, being driven into town, was set on fire, in some mysterious way, near the old town tank. The wind was blowing a gale and the flames soon enveloped the entire load. The driver jumped for his life, the team became frightened and ran, scattering bales of burning hay as it went. The mule, kicking with all his might, trying to get loose from the burning mass. Finally the horse strings to the harness were cut and one mule escaped without injury, but before the other mule could be released it was burned badly.

As the burning load passed another load of hay, being driven by J. W. Ward, his load caught fire from the flames, and Mr. Ward experienced some difficulty in releasing his team without injury. Both loads of hay and both wagons were a total loss.

COURTLAND ELECTIONS

Courtland, Ariz., March 29.—Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Tester entertained a large company of friends at a farewell party before leaving for Douglas, where Mr. Tester has accepted a position as chief dispatcher for the E. P. & S. V. "Red" was played, first honors being won by Mr. Meigs and Mrs. Locke.

Mrs. James J. Brown, wife of a prominent miner, died after a long illness, leaving two little daughters. The remains were taken to Bisbee for burial.

Considerable interest was taken in the annual school election which resulted in the election of J. P. Ratliff over the other two candidates, Abe Perkins and J. A. Scheffeld.

John Rock has removed from the old store near the Mary and Germania mines to the "brick row." The old site was needed by the mining companies for their dumps.

N. Trenham has received his commission as census enumerator for the 14th district, which includes Courtland, Gleason, Pearce, Serrano, Black Diamond and Middlemarch.

Mrs. Mary Bishop is building a cottage on lots recently purchased in Marfa.

Maury Kemp and D. M. Pendergast were recent visitors from El Paso.

J. J. Kilpatrick is here from Candelaria visiting his brother, Judge Kilpatrick.

CLINT ENTHUSED OVER BASEBALL

The G. H. Team Wins Game There—Frost Reported in Lower Valley.

Clint, Tex., March 29.—The G. H. & S. A. ball team, from El Paso, won the game from Clint by a score of 7 to 3. It was a good clean game from start to finish, and witnessed by several hundred people. The game was hotly contested until the fifth inning, when a wild throw let in three for El Paso. The work of both pitchers was a feature of the game. Home runs were made by Stoudimyre and Smith.

Livessay umpired the game and was highly commended by both sides for his clean decisions.

The walls of the first story of the new hotel are up, and work is progressing rapidly under the supervision of T. S. Kerr.

E. A. Humble and Mrs. Mary Churchill, brother and sister of C. D. Humble, are visiting the latter.

Mrs. Churchill will leave soon for her home in Guthrie, Okla., and E. A. Humble will likely locate at this place.

Mrs. Van Dyke, of El Paso, was a visitor at the Ed Schurz home.

J. H. Mitchell of Burleson, Tex., accompanied by a party of east Texas capitalists were inspecting mesa lands near this place.

J. W. Eubanks and wife, of El Paso, were visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. Stanford, and incidentally took in the ball game.

K. N. Bowington came to town with a bunch of new alfalfa, which measured a little more than two feet. The sample was mailed to a friend in Oklahoma.

Mr. Bowington states that his crop will be ready for the first cutting early in April.

The April fool ball will be held in the Schurz hall on Friday night.

The steady increase in the postoffice business at this place has made it necessary to add a new section of the combination lock boxes.

A high frost is reported here, and it is feared the fruit crop has been damaged.

Six lots and two one acre tracts of land were sold in the new addition, and they will be at least three houses constructed on the same in the near future.

GOOD CONDITIONS AROUND VALENTINE

Farm Acreage This Year Is More Than Double Any Previous Year.

Valentine, Tex., March 29.—The ranchmen report cattle in good condition and the fact that the experienced cowmen are buying numerous bunches of cattle is proof that they consider the future outlook a good one.

Many who sold their cattle last fall on account of lack of grass and the fear of a dry late spring are rebuying and are amply delighted with the future prospect of the cowman.

Grass is plentiful, alfalfa is starting much to the interest not only of the cowman but to the newcomers who have recently pitched their tents in the valley intent on living on their land and engaging in stock farming.

Already small farms are dotting the valley and the cultivated ground this year is double the acreage of any previous year.

In Valentine town lots and adjacent acreage are continually changing hands at a fair bonus price. Numerous new buildings are being erected and the betterment of the town by various ways and means is being considered by its citizens.

MARATHON VOTES SCHOOL BONDS

Wind Carries Away Part of Rubber Factory Roof. New Buildings.

Marathon, Tex., March 29.—Marathon voted $6000 worth of bonds at the election here, to build an annex to the school building, a school house out in the country and one for the Mexican children here in town.

A whirlwind lifted the roof from one of the buildings at the rubber factory and carried it out on the railroad track, breaking down the telegraph wires. Mr. Morefield, the pump man, assisted by the manager of the telephone company, made temporary repairs till the regular linemen arrived.

The telephone company has purchased a four horse motorcycle of the M. M. type for use in its business; messages can now be delivered to people that cannot be reached by wire.

More new buildings are going up, but there is some delay on account of scarcity of lumber.

Custom officer Dowd sold a number of smuggled horses on the street. The average price was $30.

The ball game resulted 2 to 0 in favor of the Guayula nine.

FIRE DAMAGES ROSWELL FACTORY

Water Freezes in Tubs, But Fruit Trees Are Not Damaged.

Roswell, N. M., March 29.—The mixing plant, elevator and all the belting of the alfalfa and cotton factory of the Roswell Flour and Hide company were destroyed by fire, which started on a platform at the side of the building and was put out by the fire department.

An hour later the second floor of the building was discovered burning furiously and by the time the department got there the building was a mass of flames. The loss will run from $9000 to $12,000, fully insured.

Persons who found ice in pans and tubs of water were sure that the fruit was badly damaged, but were greatly relieved when informed by Mr. Wright, in charge of the local United States weather bureau station, that the thermometer registered 35 degrees above zero.

TO BUILD STORE AT CLOUDCROFT

Sawmill in James Canyon Is Being Operated at Full Capacity.

Mayhill, N. M., March 29.—W. J. Hendrix, of Cloudcroft, F. C. Knight and B. Cleve, of Elk, are going to build a new store at Cloudcroft at once. The firm has bought the lots formerly owned by Perry Kearney and teams are now hauling lumber from W. E. Jergin's sawmill in James canyon.

Mrs. F. C. Hunter, who has been very sick, is now improving.

Fred Brantley and son, Mark, have gone to the Pecos valley.

H. M. Downey is to build a four room house at the mouth of Bear canyon, on the farm he bought of T. J. West.

H. E. Jergin's sawmill is being run at full capacity on account of orders from Cloudcroft.

EASTER EGG HUNT A HAPPY AFFAIR AT MONTEREY

Monterey, N. M., March 29.—Sunday afternoon at the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Lumley, an Easter egg hunt was an event that drew many friends. The hunt took place in the flower decked apple orchard which is carpeted about a foot deep in bright green alfalfa. The young people ended the search laden with bright colored eggs of every description.

Refreshments were served and then came a well arranged program of choice selections of music.

James Carroll, superintendent of the Mesalero agency, is back from Washington.

Little Marion Hunter, while sitting by the stove got a pot of boiling water turned over on her feet, burning them severely. She is in a critical condition.

EL PASO'S PROPERTY IS DAMAGED AT NACO.

Naco, Ariz., March 29.—Mrs. Joseph T. Broyles, a resident of El Paso, Texas, is visiting Naco, the windstorm having caused damage to the extent of several hundred dollars to business property owned by her as executrix of the estate of J. T. Broyles.

George Spindle, a cattleman of Arizona, at present operating in Sonora, Mexico, came up from La Cananea, bringing the 6-year-old son of Walter Pile to Hereford to visit the bedside of his mother, who is said to be very ill at that place.

Dr. Q. W. Brandon, whose term as school trustee expired, visited Cananea, Sonora, Mex., on election day. There was no election for trustee. Eugene H. Stover, superintendent of public schools of Cochise county, will appoint F. H. Kuck.

TULAROSA PERSONALS.

Tularosa, N. M., March 29.—James A. Carroll, superintendent of the Mesalero Indian reservation, and wife, have returned from an extended visit in Georgia. Their daughter, Eloise, met them in El Paso and accompanied them home.
